

“Be in it to win it and you might be famous!”

Entry date now extended up to 10am on the CKD Galbraith Stand at the Drymen Show

Saturday 29th May – The Drymen Show

10.00am

Last chance to submit your entry to Dominic on the CKD Galbraith Stand at The Drymen Show

12 noon

Art Competition Judging by West Coast artist Katy Spong

2.00pm

Prize giving by Katy Spong in the CKD Galbraith marquee

All entries will be displayed in the marquee at the Drymen Show.

drawing by Rebecca
Port of Menteith Primary

The competition is open to any pupil in primary school classes 1 to 7, based on the theme ‘My National Park’ ie The Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park and what it means to the pupils, eg nature, landscapes, lochs, activities. Pupils are invited to make an A4 size picture inspired by the theme using any drawing materials, eg pencil, chalk, crayons, paint, pastels, charcoal.

Entries will be judged on creativity, originality and handling of materials.

NB Please provide your name, primary school, class and your contact details on the reverse side of the picture.

please send entries to: Dominic Wedderburn, The Estate Office, Main Street, Drymen G63 0BQ

Tel: 01360 660782 or email drymen@ckdgalbraith.co.uk no later than 12pm on Friday 28 May 2010 or deliver in person to Dominic on the CKD Galbraith stand at the Drymen Show by 10am on Saturday 29 May 2010.