The Land at Redpath currently falls outwith the settlement boundary for Redpath village as defined within the Scottish Borders Local Development Plan (LDP) which was adopted on 12 May 2016, but given the strategic location of the land in terms of the wider settlement the land may present longer term development potential subject to obtaining necessary planning consents.

A small area of the subjects of sale falls within the wider Redpath Conservation Area. Further details are available from the Scottish Border Local Planning Authority. www.scotborders.gov.uk

THIRD PARTY RIGHTS AND SERVITUDES

A small area of the subjects which is adjacent to the access track is used and looked after by local residents of the village. Although there is no formal agreement in place in respect of the use of this area, the Seller's preference is for this area to continue to be used by the local residents going forward. Further details are available from the Selling Agents.

There are various rights in favour of a number of proprietors of the adjacent dwelling houses to south of farmland in relation to drainage.

There is a deed of servitude in relation to a power line crossing the subjects.

The owners of the houses in the former Morrison homes development also benefit from various rights over the subjects in relation to an outlying area of ground which forms a reed bed, which is bound but excluded from the subject of sale.

The owners of Redpath West Farmhouse have a heritable and irredeemable servitude right of pedestrian and vehicular access over the small area of land currently used by the local residents to the south of the subjects.

The subjects are sold together with, and subject to, all existing rights of way, servitudes, wayleaves and others whether contained in the Title Deeds or otherwise, and purchasers will be deemed to have satisfied themselves in all respects thereof.
